The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 5. to Tuesday August 8. 1721.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 7, N. S.

YEſterday M. Heems, Secretary of the Council of State, communicated by Order of the Marqueſs de Prié to M. Peſters the Dutch Reſident here, a Letter written by the Magiſtrates of Francfort to the ſaid Marqueſs, repreſenting that Quantities of French Goods were ſent up from theſe Provinces into Germany, which might bring the Contagion among them, and therefore deſiring due Care might be taken. The ſaid Secretary further acquainted M. Peſters, that the Marqueſs de Prié had thereupon given Orders, that all Goods ſent into Germany from theſe Parts for the future, ſhall be viewed and marked by the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, and accompanied with a Certificate importing that the Bales contain only Manufactures of this Country, or ſuch others as are not ſuſpected of Contagion; and that his Excellency hoped the States General would give the like Direction with reſpect to the Goods ſent from Holland to theſe Provinces.

Berlin, Aug. 9, N. S. The King of Pruſſia ſet out from hence on the 6th Inſtant for Stettin, where his Majeſty is to receive the Homage of that Part of Pomerania which was given up to him by the late Peace with Sweden. His Majeſty will alſo take a Review of three Regiments which are in Quarters there; and he is expected back here by the 18th. M. Weſtphale, the late Daniſh Envoy at Petersbourg, returned hither two Days ago from Dreſden, whither he was ſent to notify the Queen of Denmark's Coronation. Letters from Preitſch of the 4th Inſtant relate, that the Marriage of the Prince Royal of Denmark with the Princeſs of Culmbach was ſolemnized on the 31ſt paſt.

Paris, Aug. 13. The Rejoycings on Account of the King's Recovery from his late Indiſpoſition continue ſtill, and we have had within theſe 8 or 10 Nights paſt Fire-works and Illuminations in ſeveral Quarters of the Town. The Dutcheſs of Orleans gave upon that Occaſion on the 10th Inſtant a magnificent Entertainment at Bagnolette to the Duke Regent, the Duke of Chartres and to a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction, and in the Evening there were Fire-works and Illuminations; her Royal Highneſs cauſed alſo all the Inhabitants of that Village to be treated at Supper. The King gathers Strength every Day ſince his Recovery from his Sickneſs, and will go abroad this Afternoon to viſit ſeveral Churches. On the 11th the Duke du Maine reviewed the Swiſs Guards at Montroigne, and Refreſhments and Wine were diſtributed both amongſt the Officers and Soldiers to drink the King's Health: At Night M. Surbec, Captain of the firſt Company of